DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(4) because reference character "204" has been used to designate both window braze joint and fin pack. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

The drawings are objected to as failing to comply with 37 CFR 1.84(p)(5) because they do not include the following reference sign(s) mentioned in the description: internal bore (140), electron beam (90), central cavity (92) and focal spot (94). Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

Claims 8,9 and 14 are objected to because of the following informalities:

- Claim 8, line 2: "at least one of on"; should be --at least one of--.
- Claim 9, line 6: "cathode side"; should be --anode side-- (as shown in figure 5).
  - Claims 10-12 are objected to by virtue of their dependency.
- Claim 9, line 12: "tran-saxial"; should be --trans-axial--.
- Claim 14, line 2: "at least one of on"; should be --at least one of--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim 12 is objected to under 37 CFR 1.75 as being a substantial duplicate of claim 10. When two claims in an application are duplicates or else are so close in content that they both cover the same thing, despite a slight difference in wording, it is proper after allowing one claim to object to the other as being a substantial duplicate of the allowed claim. See MPEP § 706.03(k).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-7,13 and 15-20 are allowable over the prior art of record.

Should the above Objections be overcome, claims 8,9-12 and 14 would be allowable over the prior art of record.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Re claims 1-8 and 13-20: The best prior art of record discloses a collector assembly for an x-ray tube having an anode and a cathode comprising: an anode side, a cathode side, an internal bore formed between the anode and cathode side, a window side, defining a window area, common to both the anode and cathode side and a window aperture extending from the window area to the internal bore. However, the prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest a collector assembly for an x-ray tube wherein a slot is defined within the collector assembly intersecting with the window aperture, as claimed in claims 1 and 13. Claims 2-8 and 14-20 are allowable by virtue of their dependency.

Re claims 9-12: The best prior art of record discloses a collector assembly for an x-ray tube having an anode and a cathode comprising: an anode side, a cathode side, an internal bore formed between the anode and cathode side, a window side, defining a window area, common to both the anode and cathode side and a window aperture extending from the window area to the internal bore. However, the prior art fails to teach or fairly suggest a collector assembly for an x-ray tube wherein a slot is defined on the anode side of the collector and the slot is positioned trans-axially to the window aperture.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
